The physician and healthcare professional package was specifically built around the objective of letting medical professionals enjoy their down time. In fact, services like these have been proven to help lessen physician burnout and employee turnover.

Relevo is currently investigating the development of partnerships with hospitals, clinics, and large physician groups. The partnerships would provide Relevo’s services to employees of the institutions at discounted rates.

Relevo continues to expand its home management, luxury cleaning, and personal shopping services across Tampa Bay neighborhoods including Clearwater, St. Petersburg, South Tampa, Avila, Lutz, Riverview, and Brandon.
