

VETERAN CERTIFICATION AGENCY NVBDC PARTNERS WITH CONNECT SPACE

DETROIT, MI, UNITED STATES, March 20, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The National Veterans Business Development Council announces a partnership with the software platform company Connect Space. The matchmaking platform and event-based company have successfully helped NVBDC organize numerous events including the National Veteran Business Matchmaking event in Detroit in 2018 and the upcoming 2019 event in Columbus, Ohio at the National Veteran Memorial & Museum. In addition to providing an exceptional product, and outstanding customer support, Connect Space has agreed to become a corporate supporter of NVBDC and its initiatives.

"This marks a very exciting time for us here at Connect Space. We're looking forward to building our relationship with NVBDC. They continue to lead the charge in creating opportunities for veteran-owned businesses and we love the fact that our tools will contribute to their mission and continued growth and success of their program," said Len Gauger, ConnectSpace CEO.

The event management technology company has provided the platform for NVBDC to run business matchmaking events including three upcoming events that will use Connect Space technology, "Our Veteran Business Owners have benefited from our partnership with Connect Space. NVBDC hopes to continue to work with this innovative company who've provided exceptional service and product," said Keith King, President NVBDC.
