The Super Brush team will be at Booth #3040 April 7-9, explaining how including Super Brush foam swabs will increase the value of supplier kits to surgical suites.

“We are frequently asked how our durable, lint-free and adhesive-free foam swabs can be used to an advantage in the surgical suite, and we’re proud to talk about the many ways Super Brush foam swabs can add to the value of a kit,” says Diane Henry, Director of Sales. “For instance, Super Brush foam swabs can be used for application of antiseptics and skin barrier films and can be pre-saturated with fluids for single-use application. In addition, our foam swabs are manufactured without adhesives so that they do not include contaminating chemicals.”
