Individuals can now find robust usage statistics on TextExpander.com. Team statistics offer greater granularity and exportability.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, March 27, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Smile, the developer of productivity applications for Mac, Windows, iPad and iPhone, has released an update for TextExpander, the popular typing shortcut tool for smarter communication. Individuals can now find robust usage statistics on TextExpander.com. Team statistics offer greater granularity and exportability.

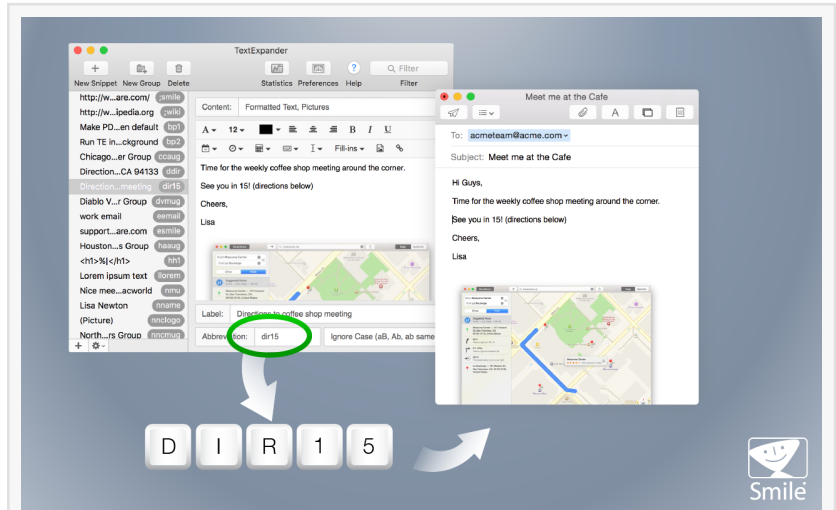

Individuals now have robust usage statistics formerly only available to Teams. These colorful charts and tables are visible to all users online, including Windows users.

Teams can analyze their usage statistics at greater granularity with a new view for all users and an updated snippets view. New CSV data export allows for additional analysis.

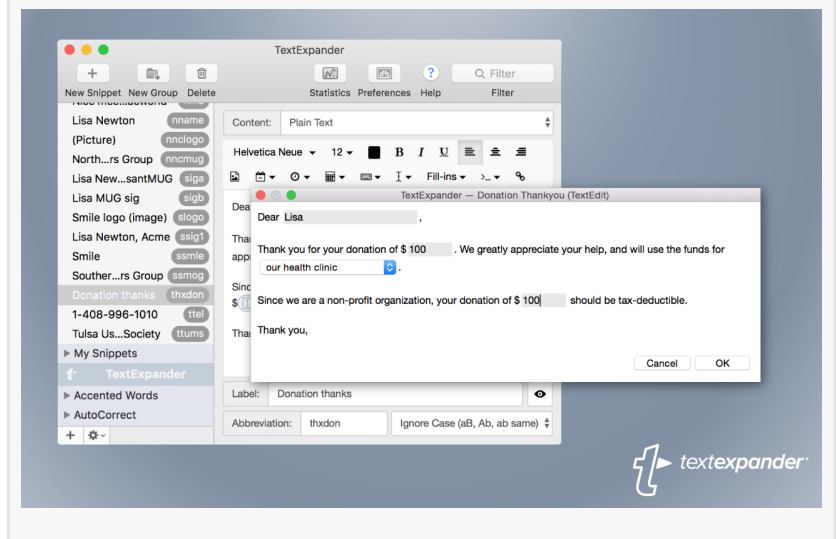

“TextExpander is a great productivity boost to everyone from solo entrepreneurs to enterprise-sized teams,” said Smile founder, Philip Goward, “Now they can all dig into not just how much time TextExpander is saving them, but how they are using it to help increase the speed and accuracy of their communication.”

TextExpander is as little as US $3.33 per month for individuals on the Life Hacker plan. TextExpander is $7.96 per user per month for the Team plan, which offers more robust snippet and user management, billing, and statistics.
