The park will open at 11 am, with the scramble for 30,000 Easter eggs filled with 140,000 pieces of candy beginning at 12:30. Among the thousands of colorful eggs will be hidden 300 golden eggs.

“The hunt happens exactly at 12:30 sharp and is over in minutes, so be sure to be there early!” said Pam Ryan-Anderson, Executive Director of the Clearwater Community Volunteers. “What started as a small event with a few hundred people is now a huge event with thousands of children running to get as much candy as possible, and maybe discover a golden egg to win a stuffed Easter bunny.”

In addition to other attractions at the event, the Easter Bunny and his companion will be taking photos with families. Food will also be available for purchase. The event will run until 2pm.

Ample free parking is available in the parking lot to the south of Coachman Park.

“Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard wrote in the Way to Happiness that one should ‘Love and help children’, which is what we do through our events,” said Ms. Anderson. “Since 1993, the Clearwater Community Volunteers has had the purpose of helping to create a better community for all citizens of Clearwater and Pinellas County. The Easter Egg Hunt is one of four signature CCV events uses to raise the funds needed to support children through organizations like the Sheriff’s Police Athletics League and the Children’s Home Network.”

Approximately 8000 guests participated in last year’s Easter Egg Hunt in Coachman Park. The event is open to the community, providing family fun for all to enjoy. This year’s event will be held on Sunday April 21st.
