

LifeStart Announces their Newest Location in Music City

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, April 1, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LifeStart is excited to announce its continued expansion into new markets with their first location in Nashville at the Fifth Third Center. Managed by Lincoln Property Company, the 31-story building is a prominent fixture in the Nashville skyline, featuring amazing views of the city, a half-acre of outdoor space, and a beautiful two-story marble lobby.

Dedicated to providing the tenants the best services and amenities, the building partnered with LifeStart for facility and equipment consulting, Solomon Builders, and Cindi Sorci with Sorci and Swords to design a state-of-the-art fitness space.

The new center called "Tone at 424" is equipped with Life Fitness cardio and strength equipment, TRX Functional Training bay, Concept 2 rowers, and Peloton bikes providing tenants with the best equipment to fuel their workouts.

The locker rooms feature top finishes with fully equipped changing rooms complete with showers, fluffy towels, and premium quality bath products.

The opening of the new health club was celebrated on March 1st, 2019 with country tunes by acoustic artist Bobby Cool and refreshments from Urban Juicer. Tenants were also treated with complimentary chair massages and equipment orientations.
