

Registration Opens for the 14th Annual Defence Exports Conference

Smi Reports: Registration is now open for the Defence Exports conference, taking place in Amsterdam, the Netherlands on the 25th-26th September 2019.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, April 1, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi Group are pleased to announce the 14th annual Defence Exports conference, the leading event for industry professionals and government officials around the world, dealing with defence trade compliance.

With a truly global programme, delegates will meet, network and hear exclusive insight from senior government officials and international trade compliance professionals. Day-1 will explore US export policies and regulations and Day-2 will largely focus on the rest of world, with presentations and panel debates on EU regulations and BREXIT.

The exclusive panel discussions will focus on 'Emerging and Foundational Technologies' and 'UK/EU Compliance following Brexit'.

Key topics for the 2019 event include export controls and international regulations (ITAR, EAR, ECR, Dual-Use, the Wassenaar Arrangement), emerging and foundational technologies, updates in the field of compliance, cyber security measures and more.

There will also be four focused Pre & Post conference workshops on the 24th and 27th September, visit the website for more information.

The brochure will be available soon with the full agenda and speaker line-up. Request a copy on the event website at <http://www.defence-exports.com/einpress>

Delegates will hear guidance on effective trade, licensing and compliance and the latest developments in control mechanisms and cyber security measures. As well as having the opportunity to gain practical guidance on how to comply with ITAR and EAR controls from within and outside of the U.S.

With joint-ventures between international agencies and militaries becoming the norm, it is vital that senior leaders and decision makers meet to optimize the ways they can work together to
