

Brook Furniture Rental Names Charley Muste as National Senior Account Executive

Experienced Corporate Housing Executive Brings Extensive Experience in Business Development and Outside Sales.

LAKE FOREST, IL., USA, April 1, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brook Furniture Rental, America's leading high end residential and office furniture rental company, announced today that Charley Muste has joined the company as Senior Account Executive for National Accounts. Charley joins Brook with more than 16 years of industry experience in sales, management and human resources development.

Most recently, Charley held the position of Executive Director of Human Resources and Organizational Development for BLVD Suites Global where she was involved in nearly every aspect of the company's growth including sales, operations, accounting, and guest services.

"We are thrilled to have someone with Charley's experience and integrity join our team," said Julius Milani, Vice President of National Accounts. "With her unique understanding of the housing industry and her ability to impact an organization, we know she will be a valuable asset in serving the continued growth and evolution of Brook."

In her new position, Charley will be responsible for managing targeted national accounts and increasing profitable revenue throughout several verticals across the U.S.

Charley holds a Masters degree in business administration from the University of Grand Rapids, MI, and will operate out of Denver, Colorado.
