The company provides customized consultancy and training services to clients in various sectors including healthcare, pharmaceuticals, education, insurance, and others. Recently, the company has announced that it has been chosen by a major Texas university for providing HIPAA Compliance Training of Certified HIPAA Privacy Security Expert (CHPSE) to their HIPAA Compliance team.

Official Announcement

Any association with a university adds repute and acclaim to organizations operating in the field. The company spokesperson has upbeat about the development in their official announcement, "We are proud to announce that we have been chosen by a reputed and leading university of Texas for providing training to their HIPAA Compliance team members. This demonstrates the trust and reputation that we have built in our sector over the past 13 years of our presence."

Besides providing HIPAA Compliance Training and consultancy services, the company also offers customized HIPAA compliance solutions and templates. "We help our clients meet the compliance requirements in an affordable and timely manner. This is made possible with the help of our wider range of services and solutions," the spokesperson added. There are programs for all sizes and sectors for firms.

The Program in Focus

The university's HIPAA Compliance team will be undergoing Supremus's 5-day comprehensive HIPAA privacy and Security Certification Training for CHPSE. It involves classroom training to enhance understanding of implications of the law. The program also trains participants on how to create a framework towards achieving compliance and conducting regular audit.

"Our program goes beyond and also teaches participants to understand international security standards. This includes learning about SOX, NIST, and ISO too," the spokesperson claimed. Even after completing the HIPAA Compliance Training program, students are required to receive an update course every year. This helps them stay up-to-date with the latest changes in regulations.

About Supremus Group
