

The Man in The High Castle Wraps Up with Jeff The Liquidator Overseeing the Sale of Significant Memorabilia

Take a journey through time in a dystopian history with The Man in The High Castle set, props and with over 2 million dollars of wardrobe up for grabs.

BURNABY, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, April 4, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Man in the High Castle is based on a book that was published in 1992 and was written by Phillip K. Dick. It spans over three decades with historical sets of antiques and vintage pieces from that period. Now, four seasons later and with esteemed awards and nominations such as the Hugo, Leo and Primetime Emmy Awards, the series has wrapped up. "With over 80,000 sq feet of goods, this TV series set sale is not to be missed". says Jeff Schwarz, OLN reality TV star and manager of this epic sale. "From movie props, wardrobes, antiques and authentic parts of history, we have it all."

The Man in The High Castle series takes you on a journey to a world where the outcome of WWII was won by the Germans and Japanese. The citizens of the dystopian history fight to change it back to the simpler times of America. Actors and actresses such as Alexa Davalos who play the role of Juliana Crain have been in other prior work such as Clash of the Titans (2010), The Punisher (2017 - 2019) and many others. As well as actor Rufus Sewell who played John Smith has been such films and TV as Victoria (2016 - Current), The Holiday (2006).

About Man in the High Castle

The Man in The High Castle series plays out a part of history that was unlike ours today. In the show, Man in the High Castle, Giuseppe Zangara was successful at attempting to kill Franklin D. Roosevelt which created a long series of events in the timeline. The results were that a nuclear bomb aimed to hit Washington, D.C. by the Germans was successful. Then eventually, this led up to the point where Germany and all their technology and power took over Europe, Africa, South America and the eastern side of North America. While on the western side of the USA, the Empire of Japan took over with their capital being San Francisco. Meanwhile, there is a group of freedom fighters that run underground forces who don't side with Germany or Japan. A character named Hawthorne Abendsen aka "The Man in the High Castle" has kept films in the show that comprise of videos showing the USA winning the war as well as other alternate realities. A world in which in the Japanese side with the Americans and are all considered second class citizens. Meanwhile, the Japanese have a film that shows an alternate bomb that the Japanese have but they really don't. Throughout the story, Juliana Crane escapes to a hidden location in New York which she then finds her sister, which means that people came from different worlds (alternate realities) across the multiverse.
