

HEALTH CITY CAYMAN ISLANDS DONATES TO NFL ALUMNI

NFLA partner supports Alumni "Caring for Kids" Platform

MOUNT LAUREL, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, April 6, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Health City Cayman Islands is supporting NFL Alumni's (NFLA) charitable mission with a $20,000 donation to its "Caring for Kids" program.

The world-class tertiary care medical facility, which was founded by renowned cardiac surgeon Dr. Devi Shetty, presented the donation at NFLA's New Jersey headquarters. Health City became an NFLA service partner in 2018.

Health City Director of Business Development Shomari Scott said: "We are pleased to support the NFL Alumni's charitable mission with this donation to 'Caring for Kids'. At Health City Cayman Islands, a large part of our mission is to bring health care to those who need it most. In our five years of operation, we have provided lifesaving heart surgeries to over 300 children in need from around the world. We are happy to partner with an organization that has children's best interests at heart."

NFL Alumni CEO Beasley Reece said: "We thank Health City Cayman Islands for this generous donation to support our mission to improve children's lives. Our partnership with Health City is part of the NFLA's commitment to not only help kids but also to provide affordable health- and wellness-related services to benefit the quality of life of our members. By partnering with Health City Cayman Islands, we are able to provide our members with another excellent medical resource."

Health City, which marks its fifth anniversary in April 2019, is committed to successful results and improved quality of life for its patients. Surgeons and medical staff at Health City have extensive experience in their fields, employ the latest technologies, and together provide seamless concierge care. Patients recover in the secure and tranquil setting of Grand Cayman - which is located just one hour away from Miami, Florida.

NFL Alumni also has a traditional mission of "Caring for Kids" across the country. Player alumni give back in their local communities by raising funds for youth-related charities through their 35 regional chapters. It is a tradition that has existed for more than 50 years. Alumni support
