

Wiselink named Riedon's Top Distributor in Asia

SINGAPORE, SINGAPORE, April 11, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For its outstanding performance and service excellence, Wiselink has been named the Top Distributor in Asia by Riedon Inc, US based manufacturer specializing in resistors and current sense shunts.

"We are proud to be Riedon's Top Distributor in Asia," said Robert Lim, Chief Executive Officer, Wiselink. "This recognition not only honours the team's hard work, but also testifies of a highly successful partnership between the two companies. "

Riedon is a leading manufacturer of resistors that boasts resistive solutions including high voltage, high pulse, high power and custom precision capabilities. Apart from resistors, Riedon also offers current sense shunts.

This year marks the fourth year since Wiselink became a distributor for Riedon. Its superior sales performance has earned its honours as the Top Distributor in Asia and the recognition underscores Wiselink's commitment in delivering quality products to its customers.

"Wiselink has been an incredible distributor for Riedon. Ever since Wiselink was added to our distribution network, we are amazed at their level of service excellence towards our customers. They always go the extra mile for our customers and I am so happy to have Wiselink as our distributor." Frieda Hovsepien, Vice President of Sales and Marketing added.

All of Riedon's products are available through Wiselink. Drop an email to sales@wiselink.com.sg to find out more.
