

Jetblack Corp. (OTC: JTBK) Continues With Acquisition of Licenses

Another Great Development for Jetblack

PORTLAND, OR, USA, April 11, 2019
/EINPresswire.com/ -- JetBlack Corp.

\(OTC: JTBK\) ("JetBlack") ("the company") announced it has finalized an agreement to purchase an Oregon Marijuana Processor License. CenAviv™, a wholly owned subsidiary, will focus on high quality edible products for the Oregon markets. The company is eager for federal laws to change so that the possibility of a national market may become a reality. Jetblack will begin the transfer process of ownership and locations with OLCC as soon as possible. In addition, JetBlack is in the process of transferring ownership and locations of a Tier 1 Marijuana Producer License and has recently been assigned an investigator. The company is working diligently to find quality financing for its operations, to build out its indoor location, and work with OLCC to transfer locations and ownership of the marijuana producer and processor licenses.

The company is still laying a foundation and hoping to begin operations and seeing revenues in the near future. "We are all very excited to finalize the agreement to purchase the marijuana processors license in Oregon. It puts us one step closer to achieving one of our goals, which is creating a premium grade edible product for the medical and recreational markets," explained Jetblack CEO Daniel A. Goldin.
