

Last Chance to Register for The Defence Aviation Safety Conference, Taking Place in London in Two Weeks

SMI reports: Registration for the Defence Aviation Safety Conference is closing in two weeks

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, April 15, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With just two weeks to go, this is the last chance to secure attendance for the highly anticipated, Defence Aviation Safety Conference taking place in London on the 29th and 30th April 2019.

Bookings can be made online at: <http://www.defenceaviationsafety.com/einpress>

As the first event of its kind, The Defence Aviation Safety Conference will host a variety of senior UK MoD Aviation Safety Leaders as well as their international counterparts who are responsible for delivering and enforcing safety across their air platforms and systems.

The event will include 24 expert speakers, 5 sponsors and exhibitors, plus there will also be a VIP speakers dinner hosted by Lead Sponsor BAE Systems, day-1 of the event. Presentation highlights include:

- 1) German Implementation of a Total System Approach to Safety in Aviation – will be presented by Major General Gunter Katz, Director General, German Military Aviation Authority
- 2) The Royal Air Force Safety Centre: Assuring Air System Safety for Maximum Capability and Delivery – will be presented by Air Commodore Mark Jeffery, Head of RAF Safety Centre, Royal Air Force
- 3) Military Aviation Authorities Contribution to Delivering Enhanced Operational Capability Within the UK Defence Air Environment – will be presented by Air Vice Marshal Steven Shell, Director, Military Aviation Authority, UK MoD
- 4) Protecting Resources and Preserving Combat Readiness Through Data Driven Decision Making – will be presented by Major General John T. Rauch Jr, Air Force Chief of Safety Commander, US Air Force

The poster for the Defence Aviation Safety Conference 2019 features a dark purple header with the SMI logo and the event title. Below the title, the dates and location are listed. A central graphic shows a globe composed of various aviation-related images. At the bottom, it states the event is supported by The Defence Safety Authority and UK MOD, with the Defence Safety Authority logo on the right.

5) Enhancing Defence Aviation Safety in A Changing World – will be presented by Luke Logan, Engineering Director Europe and International, BAE Systems Air
The event will also be chaired by: Lieutenant General Richard Felton CBE, Director General, Defence Safety Authority, UK MoD.

When describing the conference, Lieutenant General Richard Felton CBE said: “The aim is to promote cooperation and continuous improvement in military aviation and in developing fields such as cyber, space and unmanned systems. While the primary focus of this event will be on safety in Defence aviation it will also be of interest to those involvement in the acquisition and safe operation of unmanned systems and to those concerned with the certification of all equipment types. The DSA will once again be supporting this event, and I encourage participation from across Defence organisations and industry.”
