"There is a warrior strength inside of us when we were born. As we progress through life we may forget this strength or even begin to believe we never had it. You can find it again!"

"To read the stories from these contributors and their personal experience of battling cancer, bullying, and grief is so inspiring. Our youngest writer Samuel Rowland is just 11 years old. His story of dealing with being legally blind and overcoming situations such as bullying teaches all of us at any age that we have been uniquely built for a purpose. Comments Andreassen. "My hope is that if you are feeling lost and are trying to find the way back to yourself and your identity that you will pick up this book. My personal writing is from one of the most intimate experiences in my childhood and sharing with the reader how God gave me strengths, talents and gifts that helped me grow into my purpose. My desire is that everyone can find that inner strength and recognize the wonderful parts of themselves.
