Plus, 80 cents of every dollar donated by Lerner and Rowe and other organizations and individuals will help NKF expand on services used to educate, prevent, and treat kidney and urinary tract diseases, as well as efforts to advocate for transplant recipients.

It is a pleasure for us to help an organization that does so much for others in the fight against kidney disease."

Kevin Rowe, ESQ.

"It is a pleasure for us to help an organization that does so much for others in the fight against kidney disease," shared attorney Kevin Rowe. "My family has first-hand experience living with kidney disease as my father had one kidney removed and has Stage 3 chronic kidney disease. So, I am extremely appreciative of the educational and supportive services offered by the National Kidney Foundation of Arizona."
