

Glen Lerner Salutes Those Who Have Overcome Obstacles During National Second Chances Month

Glen Lerner's Second Chances Month campaign showcases video testimonies of people who successfully overcame physical, emotional, and societal obstacles.

LAS VEGAS, NEV., UNITED STATES, April 16, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Whether it be from the aftermath of a car accident or questionable personal choices, Glen Lerner and his team are experienced at supporting those in need of a fresh start. As such, the law firm felt drawn to showcase success stories during the National Month of Second Chances of those who received a second chance at life with the assistance of four community partners: Hope 4 Prisoners, Las Vegas Hoving Home, Las Vegas Rescue Mission, and F.R.E.E. International. Inspirational and heartfelt video success testimonies will be shared on the law firm's social media outlets throughout the month to bring awareness to the positive effects that can be achieved when people are given the tools to succeed and overcome difficulties.

We wanted to take the opportunity during National Second Chances Month to acknowledge those who have made the choice to make positive changes in their lives.”

Glen Lerner, ESQ.

At the culmination of the month, each of the 24 people interviewed are invited to take part in a Hope 4 Prisoner's Second Chances luncheon to further celebrate their strength in overcoming physical, emotional, and societal obstacles. The luncheon will take place on April 24, 2019, from 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. at Texas Station (2101 Texas Star Ln, North Las Vegas, NV 89032).

“Second chances offer people hope that they can redirect their life circumstances towards something more positive. That is why we wanted to take this opportunity during the National Second Chances Month to acknowledge those who have made the choice to be more and make a change for the good. We also wanted to bring awareness to our community partners who provide vocational, medical, and spiritual support to these individuals to help ensure their long-term recovery and success,” said attorney Glen Lerner.

- Glen Lerner's Community Partners -

Glen Lerner's outreach team actively engages with community organizations that seek to give back and have a positive impact within local at-risk neighborhoods. The four organizations chosen to partner with the firm for their Month of Second Chances outreach campaign are just a few examples of those willing to make a difference in Las Vegas communities.

These brief descriptions offer a few details on what each does:

Hope for Prisoners—Hope for Prisoners assists with reentry by providing the formerly incarcerated long-term support and services as they work to reclaim their lives, families, and standing in the community. (hopeforprisoners.org)

Las Vegas Walter Hoving Home—Hoving Home in Las Vegas helps to rebuild women's lives shattered by drugs and alcohol. (hovinghome.org)

Las Vegas Rescue Mission—The Las Vegas Rescue Mission exists to provide help and hope to the homeless and hurting men, women, and children of Las Vegas. (vegasrescue.org)

F.R.E.E International—F.R.E.E. International specializes in training communities all across the nation to identify human trafficking and fight it with education as well as providing survivor support. We also specialize in helping survivors rebuild their lives by meeting practical needs, providing legal help and connecting them with a variety of vital resources. (freeinternational.org)
