clients and their businesses, day in and day out. Having developed the necessary cache of tools and experience required to promptly and professionally deal with such matters, Credit Counsel, Inc. boasts a number of advantages over the competition according to company founder Christopher Mihoulides as he reveals more about the business.

"I firmly believe that Credit Counsel is a great asset to almost any business," suggests Mihoulides, founder of the South Florida-based national and international debt recovery firm.

"We assist companies in collecting funds which are owed to them from both domestic and overseas debtors, achieving consistently above-standard results by employing our skills in what is often considered a difficult industry in which to perform consistently and at an exceptional level of success," the Credit Counsel, Inc. founder adds.

From the firm's unique philosophy regarding the successful collection of bad debt, which centers around positively influencing payment, to its broader mission and commitment to ethics, Credit Counsel is proud to be taking a somewhat revolutionary approach to debt collection.

"At Credit Counsel," he continues, "we believe that 'time is money,' as the saying goes, and that our success is ultimately reflected in that of our clients."
