Description

Wiseguyreports.Com Adds "Air Treatment -Market Demand, Growth, Opportunities and Analysis Of Top Key Player Forecast To 2026" To Its Research Database

Global Air Treatment Market is accounted for $16.25 billion in 2017 and is expected to reach $38.86 billion by 2026 growing at a CAGR of 10.2% during the forecast period. The market is propelling due to the results of growing industrialization & urbanization and also the stringent regulations by the governments in monitoring the emissions and in the treatment of the industrial effluences. Despite the driving factors, the market is being restrained by the increase in demand for electric vehicles and emerging alternative & renewable energy sources.

The air treatment is a mechanism or a strategy in reducing the harmful pollutants present in the air composition by using the best treatment equipment and technologies. The major goal of the air treatment processes is to provide hygienic conditions. Air treatment includes cleaning the air of dust, harmful gaseous admixtures, odors, & bacteria, heating, cooling, humidifying, and drying the air and adding oxygen & aromatic substances.

Based on the end use vertical, the rapid expansion of production capacity and industrialization supporting the growth of manufacturing industries (especially in emerging economies like China and India), stringent environmental laws and regulations governing industrial emissions, and economic growth in developing countries have led to increasing demand for air treatment systems in the manufacturing vertical.

Considering geography, Asia Pacific is estimated to have a great share during the forecast period. Countries in APAC such as China, Japan, India, and South Korea have some of the largest manufacturing facilities in the world. Increasing population, rapidly growing economies (developed as well as developing), and government initiatives to promote industrial growth have made APAC an ideal manufacturing destination for various sectors including semiconductors, electronics, and automotive.

Some of the key players in the Air Treatment market are 3M, Atlas Copco, Honeywell, Sharp Corporation, Bosch, Camfil, Donaldson, Freudenberg, Cummins, American Air Filter Company, Daikin, Blueair AB, Hengst Se & Co. Kg, Winix Inc., Mann+Hummel, and Parker-Hannifin.
