

Ohio Investment Real Estate Broker Launches New Property Search Website

Commercial Real Estate Broker Julie Kemp launched a website with property search features for investors for the Columbus, Ohio real estate market.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, UNITED STATES, April 23, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Capital Investments Realty broker Julie Kemp launched a new website with advanced property search features for investors. The new search tools include listings in a wide area around Columbus, OH.

Kemp says the new website (<http://capitalinvestmentsrealty.com/>) allows investors looking for any kind of commercial or residential income property to search for listings in the Columbus Board of Realtors MLS (CBRMLS).

"One of our biggest areas of expertise is multi-family properties," Kemp said. "Our site benefits our clients by putting many of our advanced search tools directly into their hands."

We give our clients the advantage of searching for investment real estate that other investors may not have access to.”

She says it was important to her to allow Capital Investment Realty's investor clients to search and shortlist potential properties from their phones.

"We believe in empowering our clients and future clients with as much information as possible," she said. "But one thing that sets us apart is that our website searches our pocket listings, as well."

According to Kemp, commercial brokers often have "pocket listings" that are not in the MLS.

"Access to these supplemental listings can be really important to our clients," she said. "We give our clients the advantage of searching for investment real estate that other investors may not have access to."
