We thank GayTravel.com for this prestigious award and look forward to opening our doors at AWOL on May 1 for another amazing season!”

The award is testament to AWOL's dedication to providing an inclusive, welcoming base for LGBTQ travelers and its commitment to supporting Provincetown's strong LGBTQ community.

“As a trusted resource for LGBTQ travelers for over two decades, the GayTravel Awards™ recognized those businesses who serve as a role model of excellence and inclusiveness for others,” said Stephen Prisco, Vice President at GayTravel.com.

“AWOL could not be more deserving of their 2018 GayTravel Award win for Seasonal Hotel: they live and breathe the very essence of inclusiveness! It’s not enough to AWOL just to offer their services as a retreat where LGBTQ travelers can be themselves; they also give back to causes that support the community, such as the AIDS Support Group of Cape Cod.”

Guests can book online for stays at AWOL from May 1 through October 31, 2019.
