By adding the Veracity Video Reward module, content creators will be able to use VRA to reach, reward and retain their viewers. This means that content creators will get loyalty and new revenue while viewers get rewarded for their attention. This attention-based model creates a thriving VRA token economy!

The integration of the Twitch player is for all content providers such as eSports broadcasters and gamers who have their own websites. This will not be live on the twitch.tv domain. There are thousands of publishers who embed the Twitch player in their own websites where they attract hundreds of millions of views such as all the eSports organisations, Traders and IRL streamers to
