

TE Connectivity Announced Cable-Actuated Position Sensors

TE Connectivity has launched cable-actuated position sensors, proven reliable in automation, commercial vehicle, medical, and test and measurement applications

SHATIN , NT, NEW TERRITORIES, 香港, May 2, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TE Connectivity (TE), a world leader in connectivity and sensors, has launched cable-actuated position sensors, proven reliable in automation, commercial vehicle, medical, and test and measurement applications, are easy to install and specified for applications requiring linear position measurement from 2 to 1,700 inches (50 to 43,000 mm).

TE's cable-actuated position sensors are standard, in-stock packages as well as custom design capability for OEM applications. Its industrial packages with measurement ranges up to 43 meters for use indoors and outdoors. Analog voltage outputs including 4-20mA, voltage divider, 0-5V, 0-10V, ± 5 Vdc, and ± 10 Vdc. Digital outputs including DeviceNet, Incremental Encoder, and RS232. Rugged metal housing as well as plastic packages for compact, economical applications. The open frame designs for OEM needs with tight space requirements. Precision packages to 0.05% accuracy and 0.02% repeatability for test and measurement.

As an authorized distributor for TE Connectivity, Heilind Asia provides TE's products and also value added services. Heilind Asia supports both original equipment and contract manufacturers in all market segments of the electronics industry, stocking products from the industry's leading manufacturers in 25 component categories, with a particular focus on interconnect, electromechanical, fastener/hardware and sensor products.
