The show aired live at 8:00pm. The episode tracked Maria's life in Colombia, from babyhood, to beauty queen and soap opera star. But most importantly, the show featured her volunteer work educating gangs, company executives and even military top brass on The Way to Happiness.

Maria said, "Who doesn't want to be happy? The Way to Happiness is a non-religious moral guide that points the way." She received a standing ovation at the end of the episode and was presented with a big bouquet of flowers.

A Question and Answer period was held for half an hour afterwards and Maria answered many questions such as, "I want to help! How do I get started?" Maria encouraged everyone to help and get involved. TWITH volunteers then signed up those ready for action.
