details surrounding the upcoming Strikes For Kids AZ Bowling Classic Presented by Jimmy John's. The noted non-profit organization Strikes For Kids specializes in coordinating sporting events to help bring together local communities. The organization plans on doing just that in Gilbert on Tuesday May 14th at Fat Cats Entertainment Center when they host their sold-out charity bowling event.

Registration begins at 5:30 pm, followed by a bowling session, a backpack giveaway and a silent auction. The event will be hosted by Arizona Cardinals' linebacker Haason Reddick and go towards benefitting the Strikes For Kids Backpack Giveaway Program. The program will reward 100 children from the Boys & Girls Clubs of East Valley with a movie and treated to brand new backpacks.

“Strikes For Kids has hosted over 100 events nationally and has sold-out every year in the Phoenix community. We are ready to give the community another incredible evening of excitement.” said a Strikes For Kids representative. “This event we are thrilled to see the kids' excitement as they are surprised with not only the brand-new backpacks but enjoy a movie alongside Haason. It's a unique opportunity for them to get to share a moment with a professional athlete they look up to and admire.”
