"Through the skills learned on and off the court, we teach our children in an environment of inclusiveness, unity, respect, diversity and caring," states Jacqueline Glodstein, Executive Vice President of Global Development. "As we believe, this will set them on the path to building lasting peace within their communities."

We provide an environment of inclusiveness, unity, respect, diversity and caring, as we believe this is the path to building lasting peace."

Executive Vice President of Global Development*

On Friday, May 31st the team of Israeli students will arrive in New York from Tel Aviv. The first exhibition and fundraiser will take place in Scarsdale, New York on Sunday, June 2nd. The team will remain in North America, traveling from the East Coast, with stops in Scarsdale, NY, Philadelphia and Short Hills, NJ then to Los Angeles and wrapping up with two exhibitions in Canada, before heading back to Israel on June 14th.

The 2019 North American Summer tour schedule includes the following exhibitions and events:

Sunday, June 2nd – Scarsdale, NY – Private Home
Wednesday, June 5th – Bala Cynwyd, PA - The Cynwyd Club
Friday, June 7th – Short Hills, NJ – Private Home*
Sunday, June 9th – Los Angeles, CA – Private Home*

Tuesday, June 11th—Calgary, Alberta
(Canada) – Private Home
Thursday, June 13th —Toronto, Ontario
(Canada) - Oakdale Golf & Country
Club

Note: Attendance to ALL events requires registration; *Invitation Only

The team includes a diverse group of student athletes from Israel, and their coach, representing various Israel Tennis Centers. The team is composed of two young women, ages 15 and 18 and two young men ages 15 and 16, representing their tennis centers in Beer Sheva, Jaffa and Tel Aviv. During their US appearances, in addition to playing tennis, they will share their personal stories about what the ITC has meant to them, their families and the communities in which they live. The ITC represents a safe and nurturing educational environment in which these children can learn vital life values while providing a framework for physical fitness and wellness through sports.

ITC programs go beyond helping children become better tennis players. The real focus is helping them become better human beings, prepared to meet future challenges. Through its social impact and coexistence programs, ITC touches the lives of a wide range of children, including youth at-risk, immigrants and children with special needs, including: Autism, ADHD, Down syndrome as well as those with physical and developmental disabilities.

“We are thrilled to provide our children the opportunity to travel to North America and serve as youth ambassadors for Israel in these communities abroad,” states Glodstein. “It is a phenomenal thing to witness, these children learn so much by having this unique educational experience and getting to meet some of the wonderful people who support them.”

For more information or to attend these exhibitions and events, please go to: www.israeltenniscenters.org or contact Yoni Yair, VP of Development at 954-480-6333 or yyair@israeltenniscenters.org. ITC exhibitions and events are open to the public, advanced registration is required. Tax-deductible contributions are greatly appreciated.
