

International Cocktails with the Flavor of Bali at The Ritz-Carlton

DENPASAR, BALI, INDONESIA, May 7, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Blending local ingredients to create a fresh new tropical taste started as a hobby, but developed into a life passion for I Kadek Pramana Putra, an award winning mixologist at The Ritz-Carlton, Bali. He loves nothing more than to dazzle guests from around the globe with his unique cocktail creations. An exceptional flair for flavors won him First Place at The Abi Bali Mixology Competition in 2016, and he has finished in the top 5 in a number of international competitions, including the esteemed Diageo World Class Bartender of the Year in 2014 and 2015. His skill, finesse and infinite good taste have earned him the respect of his peers and he is often called upon to act as a judge at Mixology competitions in Indonesia.

"There is a story behind every single cocktail. My favorite signature cocktail creation is the Rujak Pelalah which I made at the Diageo World Class Competition," says Kadek. His idea was to extract the extraordinary taste of the famous Indonesian sweet and spicy fruit salad known as 'rujak', in a refreshing cocktail. To do this he created homemade spice syrup which is blended with bourbon, cranberry juice, lemon juice, tamarillo and horseradish. He completes his tantalizing creation with a tropical bird carved from pineapple that perches on the edge of the cocktail.
