

Celebrity Stylist Dawn Shannon Continues Decade Long Support of Sunscreen Film Festival

Dawn Shannon's Intuition Salon & Spa donated time and talent in support of the longest running mainstream film festival in Tampa Bay this past weekend.

ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, May 7, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Featuring 130 films from around the world, the Sunscreen Film Festival, is known world-wide for showcasing independent films on diverse topics. Celebrating 14 years, the festival presented more films this year directed by women than ever before and an engaging program according to the festival director.

Actors, film makers and guests were greeted on the red carpet by models donning the latest looks and fashion from ARTpool, a local vintage fashion store owned by Marina Williams, while Intuition Salon & Spa provided hair and makeup.

Having worked with celebrities such as Kelly Preston, George Takei, Justin Hayward and others on photo shoots, magazine covers, videos, personal appearances and award-winning documentaries, Dawn Shannon is known as a passionate supporter of the Florida film industry.

"We have been supporting Sunscreen for almost 10 years now and it is something I look forward to every year," said Dawn Shannon, owner of Intuition Salon & Spa. "The economic impact of this festival has grown and by donating my salon services I am able to contribute to making Tampa Bay better and brighter."

Since opening her first Intuition Salon & Spa in Clearwater, Shannon has been an active member of the Tampa Bay community and her business has continued to expand with three locations now serving the area. To learn more about Dawn Shannon and Intuition Salon & Spa please visit
