FRISCO, TX, UNITED STATES, May 8, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Joann Mester and Kyle Struebing are proud to announce the opening of their new CBD American Shaman store, located next to Walmart off Preston Rd., at 8745 Gary Burns Dr., Suite 136, Frisco, TX 75034. Dedicated to bringing wellness to the world through ultra-concentrated terpene-rich CBD oil derived from all natural, high quality industrial hemp, CBD American Shaman offers a wide variety of over 30 products suitable for people and their pets.

“We’re absolutely delighted to be located here in Frisco, and we’re excited to be able to offer such great quality products,” says Joann. “We know from personal experience how CBD can change your life for the better. The benefits are incredible”

Joann and Kyle decided to open CBD American Shaman of Frisco after using the products and finding relief themselves. Joann, who was plagued with chronic anxiety after recovering from an alcohol addiction, has now found day-to-day relief using CBD oil. Kyle uses CBD as an alternative from pharmaceuticals and over-the-counter pain medications to manage his back pain after having surgery. Both Joann and Kyle are passionate about educating others about this natural alternative and the potential benefits of CBD.

CBD comes from the hemp plant and is the non-intoxicating part of the plant. It is known to support and bring relief to the body and mind. This includes relieving stress, maintaining focus, pain management, and much more. American Shaman follows only the best industry standards, making their Hemp Oil the most effective and the highest quality on the market today. American Shaman uses proprietary nanotechnology, making the products nine times more bioavailable than anything else on the market; in return, the products are faster acting and are more efficiently absorbed by the body.

“Come in for a visit and we’ll help you find the product you need, for you or your pet,” adds Joann. “We can help you feel better!”
