

The Clearwater Community Volunteers Center Shows Local Families the “Fourth” Within

CLEARWATER, FL, US, May 8, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On May 4th, the Clearwater Community Volunteers (CCV) center in downtown Clearwater hosted a family fun day event in honor of Star Wars Day, otherwise known as “May the 4th be with you”. The event featured several Star Wars themed activities, including Star Wars themed arts & crafts, and refreshments.

‘May the 4th Be With You Day’ originated in 2008 as “Luke Skywalker Day”, later evolving into Star Wars Day, and has since been celebrated by fans of the popular franchise worldwide. Celebrations include movie marathons, costume contests, cooking Star Wars themed food and sharing images on social media.

Joining in celebration of ‘May the 4th Be With You Day’ with fans around the world, families participated in Star Wars themed arts & crafts at the CCV Center in downtown Clearwater.

After the activities at the CCV Center, guests went to The Way to Happiness Center where they started a Star Wars scavenger hunt. Guests followed clues that eventually lead to a box of prizes. Each person received a small prize from the box and a gift bag to take home as a souvenir of the event.

He normally can’t play with the bigger kids, since he’s small, but because of the crafts and “blasters” you provided he was able to.”

A mother of one of the children in attendance said, “Thank you for inviting us. My son and I had a lot of fun. He normally can’t play with the bigger kids, since he’s small, but because of the crafts and “blasters” you provided he was able to.”

“Star Wars is a classic story of good versus evil, and the ultimate triumph of the spirit. It is a positive message in today’s world,” said Clemence Chevrot, Director of the CCV Center. “This is the kind of celebration that we like to share with the community.”
