“

The Boss Talk Brunch aims to empower entrepreneurs about limitless opportunities and the ability to succeed in anything they desire! Be the best version of yourself!”

Shun Love, an all-around hustler, entrepreneur, and inspirational speaker.

The focus of Boss Talk complements The Love Foundation’s mission to inspire and guide young adults in the direction of an extraordinary path they didn’t know existed for them.

“The Boss Talk Brunch aims to empower entrepreneurs about limitless opportunities and ability to succeed in anything they desire! Be the best version of yourself!” said Shun Love, CEO of The Love Foundation and author of her memoir, "Old Bitches Winning." Her slogan "Old Bitches Winning," is to empower women over 40, and let them know we may be older but we are definitely winning.

Love, a native of Birmingham, Alabama, describes her journey to the top as coming "From the Hood to Hollywood." Love's fans know that her style is not to hold back about any topic. "This ground-breaking open couch conversation is designed to share secrets of success and help you understand there is only one of you," said Love. "You can't be in competition with yourself."

Special Celebrity Guest and Host include:

Amber Diamond

Model, Actress, Singer and TV personality from Chelsea, Alabama. Nationally known for her many appearances on various reality shows and TV networks including MTV, MTV2, VH1, Oxygen, Comedy Central, Teen Nick, TLC, World Star and BET.
