

Hedonistic, Clothing Optional Vacation Destination for Couples in Ontario!

If you've ever flown to tropical destinations to shuck your suit at a clothing optional resort, but want something closer to home this summer, you're in luck!

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, May 10, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sandy Bottoms Resort is an Adults Only, couples clothing optional resort in Ontario on it's own private lake. "Couples visit from all over Canada and the US looking for the same titillating experience and we are proud to offer that right here in Ontario", says Sandy Bottoms owners.

Being clothing optional, guests don't have to be naked, which provides comfort for those who aren't ready to bare it all. Guests can explore this at their own pace, and wear what makes them comfortable. Whether this is fully clothed, partially clothed, or in their birthday suit.

"Guests often tell us that they are tired of flying overseas to get to a resort like ours" says the owner. "We are so proud to offer our Canadian destination, and within driving distance for Ontario, Quebec and Northern US residents."

Forget airport check ins, waiting for hours to board an international flight, cramped airlines pressed up against a stranger, Customs agents and long bus rides to arrive at your destination. Just a short, scenic drive from both Ottawa and Toronto, guests arrive fresh and without the usual hassle of vacationing abroad.

"We like to provide a relaxed, inclusive atmosphere and let our guests take the lead on what they want out of their vacation with us", says the resort owners. "We have scheduled events each day, like meet & greets, games and themed parties. But there are no expectations to join in if you're not feeling it."
