

Gary Radburn joins DELLiVR—the Ultimate VR/AR/360 Production Training Conference as Opening Keynote Speaker

The DELLiVR Conference is a one-of-a-kind event designed to provide hands-on training for production professionals on how to create VR/AR/360 content.

NEW YORK, NY, USA, May 13, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Future Media Concepts launched the DELLiVR Conference, a three-day training event held in three locations: Los Angeles, CA (June 18 - 20, 2019), London (Fall 2019) and Singapore (Fall 2019). The conference is produced in collaboration with major industry vendors, including Dell, Adobe, and HowToCreateVR.com.

Gary Radburn has taken the helm to leading solutions in VR & AR at Dell. He will share his experiences at the DELLiVR Conference, June 18th.

The conference agenda consists of multiple tracks featuring a 2-day 360 video production field workshop, another 2-day VR and AR hands-on workshop, and case studies and best practices by industry visionaries. On Day 2 of the event, attendees are invited to attend the field trip to the newest VR Arcade in L.A, Two-Bit Circus, to immerse themselves in VR experiences with all the latest technology from HP and HTC Vive.

We saw a need for introductory and advanced technical training for professionals who decided to explore immersive media and who are looking for best practices. The DELLiVR agenda is ideal.”

Ben Kozuch

Gary Radburn, the Director of VR and AR at Dell, is joining us for the first day as a Keynote speaker. With more than 27 years of experience in the technology industry, ranging from engineering to sales and marketing, Gary will share his expertise with designing successful products and solutions and bringing them to the market. As virtual reality is becoming a rapidly popular medium, Gary has taken the helm to leading solutions in VR & AR at Dell.

“Many of us have become familiar with immersive media and the way it is being implemented in various industries,” says Ben Kozuch, President of Future Media Concepts. “We saw a need for introductory and advanced technical training for professionals who decided to explore immersive media and who are looking for best practices. The DELLiVR agenda is ideal.”

The speaker line-up features well-known industry experts, including: Marcelo Lewin, founder of HowToCreateVR.com and Program Manager for the DELLiVR Conference
