

Susanin's May 21st and 22nd auctions will feature fine jewelry, timepieces, fine art, Asian arts, decorative arts, more

A gouache painting done around 1930 by Maurice Utrillo and an engagement ring set boasting a 3.28-carat, emerald cut center diamond are two expected top lots.

CHICAGO, ILL., UNITED STATES, May 13, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- An original gouache painting done around 1930 by the French painter Maurice Utrillo, an engagement ring set boasting a 3.28-carat, prong-set emerald cut center diamond, and an 18kt yellow gold Patek Philippe Calatrava men's watch with original alligator band are a few expected top lots in back-to-back auctions planned for May 21st and 22nd by Susanin's Auctions.

The auctions will be held online as well as in Susanin's gallery located at 900 South Clinton in Chicago. Start times both days are 10 am Central. For those unable to attend in person, online bidding will be facilitated by LiveAuctioneers.com. Phone and absentee bids will also be taken.

The Tuesday, May 21st auction will contain nearly 600 lots of fine jewelry, timepieces, paper currency, numismatics and costume jewelry, while the May 22nd Spring Premiere Auction will feature more than 400 lots of furniture, decorative arts, fine art, Asian arts and collectibles.

The diamond and platinum engagement ring set, and the Patek Philippe watch, are the probable superstars of Day 1. The diamond in the ring set boasts J color and VVS-1 clarity. The four bezel set baguette diamonds surrounding the central diamond have G-H color and VS-1/VS-2 clarity. The platinum band contains nine baguette diamonds. The set is estimated at $15,000-$20,000.

Original gouache painting by Maurice Utrillo (French, 1883-1955), titled Rue de Mont-Cenis a Montmartre, signed lower right, with provenance dating to 1963 (est. $50,000-$70,000).

The handsome Patek Philippe 18kt yellow gold Calatrava men's watch features a silver opaline dial and gold time markers, a 324 automatic 29-jewel movement, an 18kt yellow gold safety release clasp, Patek Philippe certificate and the original box (plus the aforementioned alligator bracelet). The watch, one of several Patek Philippes in the sale, should realize $8,000-$12,000.

Other Patek Philippe watches will include a men's Ellipse model with an 18kt rose gold cushion shape case; and an 18kt yellow gold lady's Ellipse watch with quartz movement and blue enamel dial. Each is estimated to bring $4,000-$6,000.

A diamond and platinum ring having one 3.12-carat prong set round brilliant diamond flanked by two tapered baguette diamonds should rise to $10,000-$15,000; while an Art Deco diamond and platinum bracelet with baguette diamonds is expected to knock down for $8,000-$12,000.

The fine jewelry spans the English Georgian period, Victorian, Edwardian, Art Deco, Retro and Mid-Century to Contemporary. Signed pieces by Bassani, Buccellati, David Webb, David Yurman, Gavello, Jose Hess, Kieselstein-Cord, La Triomphe, Peter Brams, Sydney Garber, Tiffany & Co. and others are certain to appeal to all tastes and budgets.

In addition to Patek Philippe, timepieces by many other renowned makers will come up for bid. Costume and silver by names like David Andersen, Fabrice, John Hardy, Hobe, Kai-Yin Lo, Lalique, Oil on panel by Ivan Pavlovitch Pokitonov (Russian / Ukrainian, 1850-1923), titled Ruelle a la Panne Pres D'Ostende, signed (est. $20,000-$30,000).

Woodblock print in colors by Gustave Baumann (German / American, 1881-1971), pencil titled Hoosier Garden along the lower margin (est. $10,000-$15,000).

Los Castillo and Spratling will also be in the sale, as will a fine selection of American, Danish, Israeli, and English numismatics and paper currency.

The Day 2 catalog will be packed with mid-century and Continental furniture, decorative arts (including Moorcroft, Lalique, and Steuben), Asian ceramics, bronzes and inro, plus a session of nearly 200 lots of fine art from many noted, listed artists.

The painting by Maurice Utrillo (French, 1883-1955), titled Rue de Mont-Cenis a Montmartre, is a candidate for top lot of the two days overall, with an estimate of $50,000-$70,000. The vibrant and colorful figural street scene is signed lower right and inscribed "Montmartre". The work's provenance dates back to 1963, when it was sold by the Galerie Paul Petrides in Paris to Jacob Polak of Sarasota, Fla. A Galerie Paul Petrides certificate of authenticity is dated July 1, 1963.

Engagement ring set boasting a 3.28-carat, prong-set emerald cut center diamond with J color and VVS-1 clarity, four bezel set baguette diamonds and a platinum band (est. $15,000-$20,000).

The fine art category will feature an oil on panel by Ivan Pavlovitch Pokitonov (Russian / Ukrainian, 1850-1923), titled Ruelle a la Panne Pres D'Ostende, signed (est. $20,000-$30,000); and a woodblock print in colors by Gustave Baumann (German / American, 1881-1971), pencil titled Hoosier Garden along the lower margin (est. $10,000-$15,000).

An oil on panel Still Life with Flowers, Strawberries and a Cherry, by Anthony Oberman (Dutch, 1781-1845), artist signed, should command $8,000-$12,000; and an oil on copper panel attributed to Ambrosius Bosschaert II The Younger (Dutch 1609-1645), titled Still Life with Tulips, Roses, a Caterpillar and Two Flies, has an estimate of $5,000-$7,000.

A hand-colored aquatint rendering of a Mocking Bird (circa 1827-1838), by John James Audubon, Plate XXI from Birds of America, is expected to reach $5,000-$7,000. Also, an acrylic on canvas by Raymond Siemanowski (American, 1938-2006), titled Verdi Garden and the White Ghost, has an estimate of $2,000-$4,000.

An untitled figural oil on unstretched canvas by Predag Pedja Milosavljevic (Serbian, 1908-1987), signed and dated "1965" and large at 63 inches by 52 inches, should rise to $4,000-$6,000; and a color lithograph dated to 1971 by Joan Miro (Spanish, 1893-1983), titled Japanese Woman, signed and numbered "46/150", should breeze to $1,500-$2,000.

This sale also features a lovely collection of Chicago World's Fair posters, architectural elements, inkwells and fountain pens. These will be sold on May 22. Previews will be held Thursday and Friday, May 16-17, from 10-4; Saturday, May 18, from 10-2; Monday, May 20, from 10-5; and Tuesday and Wednesday, May 21-22, from 9 am 'til noon. All times are Central.

To learn more about Susanin's Auctioneers & Appraisers and the auctions planned for Tuesday and Wednesday, May 21st and 22nd, please visit ww2.susanins.com. Updates are posted often.

#

Max Condon
Susanin's Auctions
+1 312-832-9035
email us here

Patek Philippe Ellipse model watch with an 18kt rose gold cushion shape case, a brown dial with rose gold baton time markers and a brown alligator bracelet (each est. $4,000-$6,000).

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/484878189>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2020 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.