Drivers vs Constraints

The high demand of robots in various industries which help to lower labor costs and increase the productivity is the major factor for the growth of the market. The increasing demand of service robots in medical sector which are used to perform sensitive therapies and surgeries. This demand will in turn increase the adoption of robotic software platforms. On contrary, cyber-attacks on the data used by the robots may restrain the growth of the market.

Industry Structure and Updates

In 2017, IBM launched an IBM Watson-based service platform which is expected to supplement human intelligence to offer the cognitive technology that helps user to increase the productivity.

Europe plans to invest 2.8 billion USD in the European Commission's robotics research and innovation program

We also can offer customized report to fulfill special requirements of our clients. Regional and Countries report can be provided as well.
