

California Traffic Tickets on the Rise in 2019 Following Enactment of New Traffic Safety Laws

Traffic ticket experts, GetDismissed.com, report increased traffic ticket volume trend in California for 2019.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, May 14, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ --

GetDismissed.com, California's traffic ticket experts, have experienced a higher volume of traffic tickets this year for the greater Los Angeles area.

New traffic safety laws in California, combined with greater police enforcement has led to more traffic ticket violations being issued in 2019.

According to a new study, California consistently leads the ranks among states with the most traffic tickets issued in the United States. In December of 2018, 5 new traffic-safety laws to crackdown on traffic violations and improve public safety went into effect. This increased regulation has already impacted many drivers in the greater Los Angeles area. Steven F. Miller, owner of GetDismissed.com; a web-based traffic ticket service, has seen an increase in traffic ticket volume through the first third of the year.

We've seen a considerable uptick in 2019 for traffic citations written here in Southern California. 20% more speeding tickets have been requested for dismissal by our services.”

“We've seen a considerable uptick in 2019 for traffic citations written here in Southern California. 20% more speeding tickets have been requested for dismissal by our services. We expect this trend to continue through the spring and in to the summer months.”

Due to the increase in California traffic tickets and to further help California drivers when they receive a traffic ticket, GetDismissed.com also offers a traffic ticket protection membership that protects drivers against future traffic tickets. The service will provide California drivers a completed “Trial by Written Declaration defense package” to fight most California traffic tickets for free, without having to go to court. Additionally, members receive other perks such as free traffic school (if eligible) and a weekly newsletter to stay abreast of all traffic-related updates and news in California.
