About The Archer School for Girls

Founded in 1995, The Archer School for Girls is a contemporary girls' school devoted to educating and empowering girls in grades 6-12 for leadership in the 21st century. We take a research-based approach to teaching and learning in an environment that explores and refines the ways girls learn best. Archer has always been committed to reflecting the face of Greater Los Angeles. Nearly 40 percent of the student body are students of color and come from 73 zip codes and 141 feeder schools. We award nearly $4 million in financial aid annually. Above all, Archer is known for its highly innovative programs and joyful culture. For more information, follow us on Facebook or Twitter @ArcherSchool or visit our website at archer.org.
