

MONETRAN TO EXHIBIT AT WASHINGTON ELITE BLOCKCHAIN SUMMIT

Company to Unveil its Proprietary App

WILMINGTON, DE, USA, May 15, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Monetran LLC announced today that the company has signed an agreement to exhibit at the Washington Elite AI & Blockchain Summit in the nation's capital on Friday, June 21 and Saturday, June 22.

Monetran is an internet fintech company headquartered in Wilmington, Delaware. Among the company's developments is Moneda, an asset-backed stable token created for use on the Stellar network. Moneda has been designed to gradually appreciate in value and, according to the company, it has been created with the purpose of making it a universally accepted medium of exchange for purchases and payments on the internet.

At the summit, Monetran expects to unveil its proprietary app which will enable the company to make international payments in a matter of seconds at a cost that is up to 70% less than most of their competitors.

The Washington Elite Summits have emerged among the biggest and most prestigious conferences on the East Coast. The summits regularly attract many high net worth investors as well as dozens of top exhibitors across a wide spectrum, including cryptocurrency, Artificial Intelligence, Virtual Reality and blockchain. The June summit will take place at the Washington, D.C. Convention Center and will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

"We are very happy to have been accepted as exhibitors at the Washington Elite Summit," Monetran's CEO, Don Bielak, said. "We're anxious to show off our project and we hope that everyone stops by our booth to say "hi" and to pick up some information."

Monetran is currently engaged in an SEC Regulation Crowdfunding through the intermediary, StartEngine. Investors can obtain equity in the company by purchasing units which consist of both a share of stock and a Moneda token. The offering is available to both foreign and U.S. investors.

Further information on the company can be found at the Monetran website at www.monetran.com.
