

Scientology Information Center to Showcase a Musical Tribute in Honor of Father's Day

CLEARWATER, FL, US, May 16, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Saturday, June 15th, renowned international performer, Ruben Celiberti, will present "A Tribute to My Father - an Evening of Music, Song, and Dance" at the Scientology Information Center in downtown Clearwater. The event begins with a reception at 6:30pm followed by the performance at 7pm.

Ruben Celiberti is a world-class dancer, singer, and pianist who has performed with the leading stars of theater, ballet, and television in Europe and Latin America. Born in Rosario, Argentina, he trained at the Conservatory of the Colon Theater in Buenos Aires and went on to an illustrious career with the biggest names in Argentina, France, and Italy.

The Italian-Argentinian performer will share memories of his father through an eclectic mix of international music filled with color, beauty, and passion and share how his father inspired him to embark on his artistic career spanning half a century.

We are pleased to be able to showcase Ruben's extraordinary talent as a tribute to all fathers and father figures,"

Amber Skjelset, Manager of the Scientology Information Center

Ruben Celiberti has been hailed by the international press as "a musical genius", "brilliant", "sensual", and "charismatic". He is winner of Argentina's Critics Award as "Outstanding Performer of the Year".

"We are pleased to be able to showcase Ruben's extraordinary talent as a tribute to all fathers and father figures," said Amber Skjelset, manager of the Scientology Information Center. "His work embodies and reflects the precept 'Honor and Help Your Parents,' from the book, 'The Way to Happiness' written by humanitarian L. Ron Hubbard." In the book, Mr. Hubbard wrote, "In spite of all, one must remember that they are the only parents one has. And as such, no matter what, one should honor them and help them."
