

Announcing Pharma Grade Cannabidiol (CBD) to Become Part of Curativa Bay's Inc. Professional Offerings

Doctor Formulated CBD Available from Curativa Bay Beginning May 20, 2019

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, USA, May 17, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CLEARWATER, Fla., May 17, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Curativa Bay Inc, known for their Breakthrough Organic Skincare Technology, Hypochlorous Acid (HOCL) and Natural Skin Care Formulations has just completed a Joint Venture to provide organically grown Hemp Derived Cannabidiol (CBD) products manufactured according to FDA guidelines in a Pharmaceutical setting. Curativa Bay's organically grown, Full Spectrum CBD formulated into their extensive line by a board-certified Pharmacologist and Toxicologist insuring quality by testing in certified 3rd Party laboratories.

Their team of Medical Doctors, Pharmacologist and Toxicologist formulate these products in concert with third party testing laboratories to determine exact composition of Cannabinoids and Terpenes, as well as any potential toxicological contaminants. Once their testing is complete and cleared they add to a proprietary blend of Terpenes and organic plant extracts developed by their board certified Pharmacologist and Toxicologist. The blend is then tested a second time in a 3rd party laboratory to ensure the cannabinoid content is as advertised.

The cannabinoid, CDB, is non psychoactive, meaning users will feel neither High nor Stoned when applying or consuming their products. CDB is anti-anxiety, anti-inflammatory and an antioxidant making it a power combatant against anxiety, stress, pain and inflammation.

Curativa Bay (www.curativabay.com) is a boutique Veteran Owned skin care/ health and beauty manufacturer located in Clearwater Florida providing innovative natural health and beauty solutions with an emphasis on disruptive natural technologies.
