

Best Omni-Channel POS Solution for Restaurants, Quick Serve, Retail Added to LPA Retail Systems Offerings

LPA Retail Systems announced the addition of Revel, a top omni-channel POS (point-of-sale) solution for markets that include restaurants, quick serve, retail.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., U.S., May 16, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LPA Retail Systems, a recognized leader in omni-channel retail technology solutions, is excited to announce the addition of Revel, a top omni-channel POS (point-of-sale) solution for an array of markets that include restaurants, quick serve and retail. LPA Retail Systems President Tim Lano said, "Revel allows us to expand our offerings into industries we couldn't serve before, particularly restaurants. Because Revel has an IOS operating system, it offers a true iPad experience; this means ease-of-use and enhanced security for our clients. The bottom line is that we love this product and are confident in our ability to implement and support Revel with our superior retail technology team." Revel, which is offered on an affordable SaaS monthly subscription basis, powers restaurants and retailers with a robust cloud-based POS and business management system. The solution pairs an intuitive POS with powerful management tools, integrating inventory management, employee management, sales reporting, and more into a single platform. Both Revel Essentials (for small chains and single sites) and Enterprise (for larger chains) are built for markets that include quick serve, restaurant/bar, retail and more.

The bottom line is that we love this product and are confident in our ability to implement and support Revel with our superior retail technology team.”
