“Our mission is to become the most respected roofing construction company in the industry by being committed to constant and never-ending improvement; being a company that our customers, employees and suppliers can trust; focusing on operational excellence in all areas of our business; really caring about our customers, our employees, our suppliers and the communities we serve; and creating economic welfare for all,” says Company President Jim McCormack.

This is accomplished each and every day by having the best team in place with the most efficient systems and quality installations. And the work does not go unnoticed, as customers and partners alike are responding with high praise.

"Thank you for the excellent job that your company performed this year. I was impressed with the professional care that each of your employees displayed in reroofing my home. I look forward to relying on your company for the maintenance on the two remaining roofs," says Shedrick H. Moore, a satisfied customer from Costa Mesa.

"...Your firm's steady growth in sales of our products over the past few years has now reached a level where you are now the largest contractor for residential roofing products in Orange County.... McCormack Roofing Co. is one of only three contractors across North America that we have never received a negative customer complaint about," says Tom Sparling, President of Steel Tile Distributing.

McCormack Roofing serves more than just its customers, it also gives back to the community. Robert Souza, a local veteran, received a new roof from McCormack Roofing as part of the Owens Corning national Roof Deployment Project, which is a nationwide effort to show gratitude and honor the veterans who have served our country and the families who support them.

In addition to its eight consecutive Talk Awards, McCormack Roofing was also named a 2018 "Best of the Best" National Award Winner for Roofing.
