free set of access doors.

Lynx

Lynx grills are among the most highly coveted on the market. Each unit is constructed with a proprietary welding technique of Lynx's own design. All corners are absolutely seamless with no gaps where moisture and cooking residue. This makes these grills robust with almost unparalleled longevity. Lynx, ever exploring new horizons in grilling, has introduced their exclusive Trident Infrared Burner. It's capable of an alarming maximum 23,000 BTUs. But this is power you can rein in. With precise controls, you can achieve temperature ranges from 300 degrees F to 1000 degrees F. To sway skeptics toward this new technology, they're giving away instant savings.

- Purchase a qualifying 26-inch all Trident built-in or freestanding grill, get a $300.00 instant rebate.

- Purchase a qualifying 42-inch all Trident built-in or freestanding grill, get a $500.00 instant rebate.

Hestan

Hestan's reach in the realm of appliances runs the gamut. Whether it's ranges, refrigerators, or dishwasher, among others, one common thread can be found. Fans of Hestan appliances are almost fanatic in their love of the brand. One of their acolytes is no less than Thomas Keller, arguably one of the best chefs currently working. Their outdoor kitchens hew to the same high standards. The heavy-gauge, welded body construction houses luxe features. Spring-assisted hinges on in the Horizon Hood make raising and lowering the lid effortless and allows you to hold it open at any height. Prepare as much food as you'd like with up to 647 sq inches of main cooking space. See everything you're doing even in pitch black night with halogen interior lighting and LED control panel lighting. Hestan wants to help you complete your outdoor kitchen with this lavish giveaway.

- Purchase a qualifying grill head or deluxe freestanding grill and receive $350.00 via mail-in/online rebate.
