Carson City's rich and intriguing history is explored and theatrically re-lived in our seasonal evening walking tours, led by Madame Curry a spirited and historically fictional character named after the widow of Carson City's founder, Abe Curry.

This is the 27th season of the Carson City Ghost Walk. This year's theme explores "In The Shadows" of Carson City. The evenings are a delightfully spooky and enjoyable way to experience Carson City's Victorian Era and diverse history. Hear about lingering spirits of the long ago centuries, haunted and paranormal stories and gossip from the past. This is a spirit lead, guided walking tour of the downtown district's west side historic homes and businesses.

These scheduled tours leave rain or shine. Please arrive at least 10 minutes before the walk begins. Dress for the weather and for the walk. Bring a light source if we lose daylight. These

FEATURES:

The west side of Carson City was settled in the late 1850's at the beginning of the the largest silver rush in history. It was a time of great prosperity, discovery and excitement as Nevada became the "battle born" state in 1864.

Some of the outside stops along the tour include:

- The Bliss Mansion - Built by Duane Bliss is a three story, 8,500 sq ft. mansion that was completed in 1879, built by millionaire Duane L. Bliss, to become his dream home.
- Ferris Mansion - Home of George Ferris, Jr., inventor of the Ferris Wheel for the Chicago World Columbian Exposition in 1893.
- The Governor's Mansion - Is situated on the beautiful Mountain Street, or as Madame Curry calls it: "Celebrity Row". In 1907, the "Mansion Bill" and neighbor Mrs. T.B. - - Rickey made this residence possible 40 years after Nevada became a state. There are many spirits linked to this mansion and area.
- Rinckel Mansion - Built by the fortune of Mathias Rinckel, a forward-looking meat magnate who struck it rich supplying Gold Rushers and Lake Tahoe lumbermen.

Carson City, Nev. boasts an array of outdoor adventures, fine restaurants, challenging golf courses, historical attractions, museums, gaming opportunities and a plethora of events and entertainment. Visitors will find plenty of exciting activities and experiences to choose from. In the heart of the action, Carson City is nestled just minutes from world famous Lake Tahoe, electrifying Reno, historic Virginia City and the majestic Sierra Nevada mountain range.
