

CARIBBEAN305 RETURNS TO MIAMI THIS SUMMER

A celebration of the culinary, spirits and cultural wonders of the Caribbean coming to Mana Wynwood, June 22

MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, May 17, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- South Florida's premier Caribbean culinary and cultural celebration, Caribbean305, returns to Miami on Saturday, June 22, 2019 at Mana Wynwood , a new location for the annual event.

Featuring flavors from more than a dozen countries and territories, Caribbean305 spotlights award-winning chefs and mixologists from 14 destinations, such as the Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Bonaire, British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Curaçao, Grenada, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, St. Lucia, Suriname, Trinidad and Tobago, and Turks and Caicos. The event will also feature cultural influences from Antigua and Barbuda, and the Dominican Republic.

The guests, who will be welcomed by moko jumbie stilt walkers and carnival dancers in full-feathered regalia, will also enjoy live Caribbean entertainment, including reggae, soca, salsa and zouk.

Caribbean305 offers the opportunity to learn more about travel in the region while meeting Caribbean tourism representatives, not to mention offering a chance to win free trips to Caribbean destinations throughout the night.

"We look forward to our third edition of Caribbean305, which is a wonderful event to celebrate the region's culture garnished with some of the finest culinary talent available anywhere," said Frank Comito, Director General

Caribbean Hotel and Tourism Association
