*Regency Global Sourcing
President & CEO, John "Skip"
Summerville*

The Regency dream began in 1940, when Scott and Norma Summerville opened their own office products business. In 1987 their son, John "Skip" Summerville, accepted the responsibility as President and CEO. Unable to find a source for quality affordable office furniture, he became it! By doing so, this family business entered a new chapter becoming Regency Global Sourcing – your complete source for office furniture.

The Regency family grew again with the creation of the Niche line. Built around the concept of easy-to-build home furnishings, Niche is perfect for any room of the house, dorm or lounge. The Niche product line features Lockdowel tool-free assembly and includes modern lightweight seating tables and desks and Cubo modular storage cubes. "Let your imagination run wild with Niche!" Find out more at: www.mynichefurniture.com
