

DejaOffice CRM rated #1 Best Productivity App by Lifewire

Author Jody Emlyn Muelaner rates DejaOffice higher than Outlook App based on Powerful Widgets for Android phones.

PORTLAND, OR, US, May 22, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lifewire has rated DejaOffice the #1 Best Android Productivity App of 2019. In a feature article published in March, author Jody Emlyn Muelaner calls out the fact that DejaOffice offers access to Outlook Tasks and Notes from your Android phone. The author also mentions the power of the Today Widget, which puts an agenda view on your Android home page that has your appointments, tasks and contacts for today. One tap on the Today widget and you can map your next appointment or text them that you are running late.

“We are ecstatic that our App is appreciated by so many people,” says Wayland Bruns, CTO for CompanionLink. “DejaOffice was the first Outlook Android Sync App to provide Contacts, Calendar, Tasks and Notes as Outlook does on the PC. We have worked hard to make sure it is efficient to manage your day, add new data and ensure that sync is smooth from Android to PC. DejaOffice also provides Outlook iPhone Sync and both the Android and iOS versions have tablet mode.”
