Facial wipes are skincare products used to maintain the health of the skin. They have anti-inflammatory, skin smoothing, anti-aging (anti-wrinkle and anti-sagging), ultra-violet (UV) protection, and acne prevention properties. They also help with rejuvenation and regeneration, moisturizing and nourishing, skin brightening, protection and conditioning of dry and damaged skin.

According to the report, one of the major drivers for this market is Consciousness and awareness of hygiene. Personal hygiene is very important for a healthy lifestyle because it helps to prevent falling prey to harmful infections and other diseases. The governments of many developing countries and big companies are making efforts to create awareness of the benefits of personal hygiene. The growing adoption of products that help to maintain hygiene may help to propel the growth of the global wet tissue and wipe market during the forecast period.
