

Cayman Islands has a tourism surge in 2019

The Caribbean's Cayman Islands set for a record year

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, May 24, 2019

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Exceptional Villas, the World's most trusted villa rental company are delighted to announce that the Cayman Islands is seeing record-breaking tourism growth this year.

The island reported 145,804 stayover visitor arrivals in the first quarter of 2019 which is an 8.67% increase over the same period in 2018.

There are new hotels, new restaurants, new luxury villas and new flights which have all resulted in this impressive growth. Grand Cayman's brand-new international airport which opened just last month by Prince Charles has introduced new flights. Click Here for More Information

We have had a very successful first quarter and look forward to sending the island more business in the second quarter, so this surge continues”

Cayman Airways introduced a new route from Denver and Colo and Southwest Airlines have also introduced flights from Baltimore/Washington making it easier for guests to reach the island and thus one of the reasons of the increase in visitors in the first quarter.

It has also been reported from the department of tourism that visitor spends for the first quarter was approximately CI$235 million which is fantastic for the economy of the island.

Cayman should be very proud of their first quarter and we were delighted with the increase in enquiries for our villas on the island. "We have had a very successful first quarter and look forward to sending the island more business in the second quarter, so this surge continues," says Niamh McCarthy, Cayman Island specialist for Exceptional Villas. Exceptional Villas feature the most exclusive and luxurious villas on the island of Grand Cayman. All of the Exceptional villas specialists and concierges spend a lot of their time on the island of Grand Cayman viewing villas and meeting with local suppliers so they can suggest the best for their clients.

When a client books a villa with Exceptional Villas, they receive five-star service and a dedicated concierge who will organise their entire itinerary.
