

2019 Marks Seven Years of Support for Lerner and Rowe of the Annual Code:Red Heat Relief Campaign

Lerner and Rowe partners up to help lessen heat related injuries and deaths among homeless and disadvantaged in Phoenix.

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, May 30,

2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For the seventh consecutive year, the law offices of Lerner and Rowe will host

Code:Red Heat Relief water bottle

drop-off locations for the Phoenix

Rescue Mission. Furthermore, the Phoenix-based law firm donated $7,500 directly to the rescue mission in support of their annual heat relief campaign. And because of the well known dangers that hot

Arizona summers present to Arizona homeless community members, they also agreed to contribute additional funds up to $5,000 towards 98 KUPD's Operation Hydration. In fact, Operation Hydration also benefits Phoenix Rescue Mission's Code:Red Heat Relief campaign.

Together it is possible to help more of those in need. That is why we continue to support the Phoenix Rescue Mission's Code:Red Heat Relief Campaign and their life-saving efforts.”

Kevin Rowe, ESQ.

Financial donations given to the mission's heat relief campaign will be used towards covering costs for: air-conditioned relief, fresh water, nutritious food, sunscreen, clean change of clothes, Summer Hope totes, and more.

“An average of 132 people die from excessive heat in Arizona each year. After reading this statistic on the Phoenix Rescue Mission's website, it drives home just how important the Phoenix Rescue Mission's Code:Red Heat Relief campaign, Operation Hydration, and all of the other individual and business contributions are to helping the homeless and disadvantaged members of our community make it through the hot summer months,” said Kevin Rowe. “Together it is possible to help more of those in need. That is why we continue to support the mission and their life-saving efforts.”
